THE Buffalo Springs distillery, at Stamping Ground, Scott county, owned by Trundle & Haynes, has suspended operations after making seventy barrels of whisky, caused by the service of a number of attachments by their creditors. The firm may arrange to resume later in the season.

"RUMMAGE SALES" for the benefit of charity are all the rage in the large cities at present. The goods offered for sale are acquired by friends rummaging in their cellars and garrets and pulling out old furniture, clothes, etc. The "Rummage Sale" in Cincinnati was quite a feature a fortnight ago.

Mrs. J. M. THOMAS, Mrs. W. L. Davis and Mrs. T. E. Moore, Jr., who are receiving contributions to the Goebel Monument Fund, request the sub-committees throughout the county, as well as all other ladies interested in the movement, to meet with them to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock at Mrs. Davis' home on High street.

In The Show Business.

MR. L. H. RAMSEY, of the well-known advertising and bill posting firm of L. H. Ramsey & Co., of this city, left Sunday at noon for New York on a business trip.

Mr. Ramsey, it is said, is desirous of taking a lease of three years, with the privilege of five, on the Grand Opera House at Paris, Ky. He will make an effort to secure such a lease on his return within the next few days from New York. Should Mr. Ramsey lease this theatre he will, it is said, secure the services of Mr. Robert S. Porter, junior editor and part owner of the Paris Gazette, as local manager. His selection in the local management of the Paris house will prove a most excellent one, as Mr. Porter, until recently, has for several years been a resident of New York, and, like Mr. Ramsey, is conversant with the show business.—Lexington Leader.

Bourbon Ladies Buncoed.

A STRANGER with an oily tongue and a line of piece goods has victimized a number of Bourbon ladies, and also buncoed not a few men. The stranger would not sell any single piece of goods the purchaser might want, but would make them buy several pieces in order to get the piece wanted. The pieces he sold the ladies for broadcloths have turned out to be pressed flannels, and the other goods are dear at the price.

Bourbon people will make no mistake if they buy from Bourbon merchants who advertise. When a stranger offers you something for nothing, better be wary.

A Soldier Brought Home.

THE remains of David Hughes, of this county, who was killed by lightning on July 17th, last year, while in the army service in Cuba, were sent to this city Wednesday for burial. The interment occurred yesterday. Hughes was out on duty when he met death, and the bolt which killed him also killed his horse and one which he was leading. Hughes is a son of Will Hughes, of Hutchison, who has three sons in the Army.

Johnson Lamb, another colored soldier, from this city, was drowned in Cuba some time ago, and his body is expected to arrive here in a few days.

Parisians Win Honors.

It has become rather a custom for Paris students to win honors at universities and medical colleges, but it is a custom that is gratifying to their fellow townsmen. The latest young gentlemen to win honors at college are Mr. Buckner Woodford Jr., son of Mr. Buckner Woodford, Cashier of the Bourbon Bank, and Mr. M. A. Comack, son of Mr. Patrick Comack. Mr. Woodford has been made salutatorian and Mr. Comack class orator of the graduating class this year at Kentucky University. Both are excellent young men. The class numbers eighteen members.

News "Want" Ads.

A two line local, advertising a typewriter for sale, brought eight prospective purchasers in three days. The twenty cent ad. sold a hundred dollar typewriter.

A three line local printed several months ago is still bringing calls from people who want to buy a show case. The moral in this story is plain to people who have things to sell.

THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

The Little Minister comes to the Paris Grand on April 6th.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, who plays "Zaza" in Cincinnati next week, will sail on April 4th with her company for London to give the British an opportunity to see "Zaza." "Sapho" has not yet been booked in the English metropolis.

At Lady Landsdowne's war concert at Covent Garden, in London, the other day Mme. Patti wore $1,250,000 worth of diamonds. The display of the jewels was the feature of the occasion. Mme. Patti sang, and the concert netted $60,000.

While John Griffith's company was playing "The Three Musketeers" Monday at Masillon, O., two telegrams brought joy and sorrow to the company. One announced that Mr. Griffith's father had died in Texas, and the other told of Miss Bertrand, the leading lady, being awarded $5,000 damages for being injured in a unguarded elevator shaft.

Having been stopped by the police in New York as the result of a crusade started by the New York World, "Sapho" will be taken on the road. Mayor Duncan was asked by telegraph if "Sapho" would be allowed to play in Lexington, Ky., and replied that if the play was too tough for New York it was too bad for Lexington. Olga Netherlands and several members of her company have been held over for trial in New York for offending public decency in producing "Sapho."

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centred and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Next visit—Thursday, March 22, 1900. Hello, 170.
